FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

DMV Inspector Stops Driver for 103 MPH on Interstate 89 in Milton

MONTPELIER – A Commercial Vehicle Enforcement Inspector with the Vermont Department of Motor Vehicles stopped a forty-four-year-old driver for Grossly Negligent Operation on Interstate 89 in Milton.

On Friday afternoon September 26, 2014 at 3:56 PM Corporal Matt Nesto was traveling south bound on Interstate 89 south of the Lamoille River Bridge construction zone in the town of Milton when he observed a 2001 Honda CBR 1100 motorcycle traveling well in excess of the posted 65 mph interstate speed limit in the passing lane. Corporal Nesto using same lane moving radar was able to record a speed of 103 mph in the 65 mph interstate speed zone.

The operator was identified as Sysomphane Nouanesengsy of Brossard, Quebec. Nouanesengsy was cited to appear at Vermont Superior Court Criminal Division in Burlington on November 25, 2014 to answer to the misdemeanor charge of Grossly Negligent Operation. The penalty for a first offense shall be imprisonment not more than two years or fined not more than $5,000.00, or both. The offense also carries a 10 point assessment on a Vermont driver's record upon conviction.
